“ Twenty plus years ago, Ruth and I volunteered together at a thrift shop in Pleasant Hill which supported battered women and children. We had a small volunteer crew in those days, and I can remember the laughter and chatter as we sorted, priced, cashiered, etc.--all the many tasks involved in running a business. I especially remember that when stuffed toys came in, Ruth would take them home to wash so they would be clean and fresh for the children. She was a special woman, and I have always remembered the times we shared in that little shop.
