

Sara M. Smith

September 23, 1939 - July 18, 2020

Sara Marie Smith passed away at her home in Benicia following a courageous battle with brain cancer. She was born in Monterey, California and lived in Benicia with her beloved Fred. Sara worked for the Bank of America and retired after 37 years of service.

Sara loved cooking, baking and gardening. She had great joy in sharing her creations with family, neighbors and great friends. She was a longtime faithful member of St. Dominic's Church in Benicia. She told her family just prior to her passing that she has "had a great life".

She is survived by her sister Alberta Zearley, her niece Diana Whyte (Tom), several extended family and friends and her dog Lady. She was preceded in death by her husband Fred L. Smith in 2009.

Private graveside services will be held at San Carlos Cemetery. In lieu of flowers please send donations to the American Cancer Society or the charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Sara M. Smith

November 29, 2022 at 08:20 PM

DM

I'm sorry to learn of Sara's passing. Sara and I shared many memories from 1981-1987 when we were both at BofA. Just today I was in contact with John Furtado who I have not talked with since my old BoA days. Rest well Sara, with any luck we'll all see each other again, in some form. Dave Matulich

Dave Matulich - April 22, 2023 at 12:42 PM

MG

“ My dear friends, Sara and Fred Smith, were my best friends and always helped me through many of my life's trials and tribulations, she was a great mentor, an even better colleague at Bank of America. When Sara befriends you, it's for life. Thank you Sara for all your love and support, I will never forget your gift of friendship, Now that I live in Monterey, I visit all the places she grew up in, including the Cemetery where Fred is and soon she will be there too, Love, Mercy Gonzales

Mercy Gonzales - July 28, 2020 at 10:30 PM