

Sean Michael Murphy

November 5, 1975 - May 31, 2022

On Tuesday, May 31, 2022, Sean Michael Murphy, loving son, brother, and father, unexpectedly passed away far too early at the young age of 46.

Sean was born on November 5, 1975, in Oakland, California to John Murphy and Doreen Serb. Later, Sean welcomed his stepmother, Gail Murphy, into his life.

Sean grew up on Dan Court in Vallejo which is where he met his neighbors, and lifelong friends, Benjamin and Daniel Saguar.

He attended elementary school in Richmond and Vallejo and graduated from Hogan High School in 1993.

Sean had a passion for all sports but had a particular affinity for baseball. He was an outstanding pitcher and played for East Vallejo Little League and Vallejo Babe Ruth where he was named MVP multiple times. He continued to play baseball for Hogan High School and The American Legion.

His love of baseball, and the San Francisco Giants, was passed down to his son, Dylan James Murphy (age 12). Sean spent much of his free time coaching and watching his son play ball. He was happiest when at the field taking in a game. Sean was most proud of his son for his academic achievements, athletic abilities, and kind heart.

Sean enjoyed watching all the Bay Area sports teams compete and had a passion for playing fantasy football and baseball. Best known for his gaming handle "Seany 2 Shots," Sean loved collecting sports memorabilia and was famous for the extensive bobble head collection which he proudly displayed in his office.

Sean touched many lives throughout his career in the mortgage industry. A loan officer for over 25 years, Sean began his career working for his father and mentor John. Sean went on to build a successful local business with his sister-in-law and right-hand partner Julie Murphy.

Ever the family man, Sean always prioritized family get-togethers, and was an extremely generous gift giver. He was proud of his Irish heritage which he prominently displayed with a shamrock tattoo and his favorite drink, Bushmills.

Sean is survived by his parents, John & Gail Murphy and Doreen Serb, his son Dylan Murphy, his siblings Patrick (wife Samantha), Ryan (wife Julie), Shannon (husband Ryan), his three nieces (Kylie, Alyssa, and Teagan), three nephews (Andrew, Jamison, and Liam) and his Akita dog Ari.

“ Oh man this still does not seem real. Sean was one of my closest friends and a kind, generous soul and he left this earth far too soon. All that knew and loved him are hurting now. My sympathies go out especially to the Murphy family and his son Dylan. Sean and I took a trip of a lifetime back in 2015 as baseball fans we flew to Boston on a redeye went to Fenway, Cooperstown(picture added) and Yankee stadium while enjoying the culinary of 2 great cities. We had an awesome time and are some of the most special of many memories I have with him. Sean served his community his family and his friends as good as one can and when they talk about a "good role model" he fit the bill with spades. May God have mercy on his soul and may he rest in eternal peace. Save me a seat at the blackjack table buddy. Love ya!

“ Sean was such a Sweet caring person. He helped my husband David and I through financial processes with our mortgage a couple of times. He was the Best and So helpful, especially with me and documents. He had such patience and we instantly became Good Friends!! He even let us add to his collection on his office walls! When he sent out business emails I would Always reply and ask how he's doing and let him know we were Praying for him. Condolences to his family.. God Bless, David and Susan Core

Please accept our heartfelt condolences. We are heart broken with the news. We did a VA refi with Sean this past year and kept in communication with him. Paul and I had an instant connection with him due to his honesty, patience, integrity and genuine interest in our well being. He was one of a kind and his kindhearted words and spirit will forever be with us. I will miss him. May his memories live in your hearts and bring comfort.
