

Sharron C. Pruitt

March 31, 1964 - February 7, 2025

Sharron C. Pruitt, a loving mother, sister, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on Friday at her home in Benicia. Born in Vallejo to Mary Joanna Pruitt and Robert Leroy Pruitt, she always considered Benicia her true home. Sharron's warmth and kindness were evident in everything she did—her smile could light up a room, and her presence brought comfort to those around her.

She dedicated her time and energy to her work as a merchandise exchange clerk at Home Depot, where she was known for her helpful nature and friendly spirit. But above all, Sharron's greatest joy came from her family. She is survived by her beloved children, Crystal Simmons, Janet Martin, and Anthony Pruitt; her bonus sons, David Tobey and Major Way; her brothers, Dennis, James, and Steve Pruitt; and her cherished grandchildren, Jack Lundquist IV, Adrian Simmons-Tobey, Jaeden Wright, Calum Mark H. Pruitt, and Myles Lee Owen Bolley. She was preceded in death by her dear sister, Connie Sandman.

Private services will be held in her honor. Arrangements are under the direction of Passalacqua Funeral Chapel. Please visit the online tribute to share memories and condolences.

“ Mom words can't even express how thankful I am to have had you as my mom. You never gave up on me, even when I know you wanted to at times. You taught me to respect my elders and to always lend a helping hand when needed. You showed me compassion for animals when you adopt baby skunks and possums because their mothers were killed. You would feed them out of your hand and raised them to the best of your ability, I think there are still some loving ha

Sharron, you are so young, just a baby! It was a pleasure working with you in the grocery business. I appreciated your great sense of humor, and honesty. I always knew it will be a "good day" when I see you at work. I will missed you, My Condolences to your family. Sharron, you are one in a Million.
