October 17, 1957 - May 16, 2016

Steven A. Reignierd, 58, passed away peacefully and unexpectedly Sunday evening at his home. Although he was born in Medford, Massachusetts, Steven moved to Vallejo at a young age and has considered it his home ever since.

In 2005 he became ordained by the Catholic Diocese and enjoyed officiating wedding ceremonies for his friends and loved ones. He was a dedicated member of the local community. Steven worked with his mother, Genevieve, for many years as the Director of Reignierd School. He then served as a counselor at All Souls Cemetery in Vallejo for several years, and as an entrepreneur owned his own business Futons & Beyond in the Castro district of San Francisco, and most recently Steven has served as the Principal of Starting Gate School in Vallejo. Known as "Stever" to his friends. He also loved the theater, traveling, camping at Lake Berryessa with his friends, being around water whether ocean or poolside, and entertaining family and friends in his home. His door was always open to those he loved.
