“ I'm in shock right now. I haven't seen Susan in about 12 years but we used to sit on her porch and talk when I was a little girl & she was a teenager. Her dad Richard Silva was my cousin. They used to live on El Bonito (I think) up in the highlands when I was a kid, before they moved to Fifth Street. I remember her putting green eyeshadow on me when I was about 8 or 9, and I got in so much trouble for wearing it home lol. She told me that I looked good in green on so of course her being a teenager and all I wanted to wear green clothing all the time. The last time I saw Susan was at Cliffs. She came out & sat with me for a bit and we talked. I don't know if she was ill at the time, she never mentioned it. I regret not keeping in touch with her. I hate regrets... My deepest sympathy to her family, especially her children. May the God of comfort help you during this difficult time. I am so very sorry. You are all in my prayers.

“ *Remembering the happy days and memories we have as the years flew by. Now the ups and downs become nonexistent - and we pray for your eternal rest and peace. The legacy is in those left behind - and your three children are wonderful adults now. Time heals all wounds. You leave with our love.....
