

Susan Marie Saguar

July 13, 1954 - May 5, 2024

Susan was born in San Francisco, CA to Norbert (Kate) Organisciak. She grew up in Daly City, CA where she met and married her husband, Pablo Saguar. They moved to Vallejo, CA in 1982, raised their family and eventually moved to Benicia, CA in 2006 where she lived out her final years. Susan is survived by her husband Pablo Saguar, two sons Benjamin (Estela) Saguar and Daniel Saguar, grandchildren Isiah Saguar, Sofia Saguar, Emma Saguar and Olivia Saguar.

In 1973, Susan obtained her Certified Dental License. She was a dental assistant in the Benicia and Vallejo offices of Dr. Rakich. After that, she went on to work for The Wrigley Company at their Walnut Creek office. There, she began as a customer service representative in Tele sales before being promoted to Sales Administrative Assistant. She returned to the dental industry as a call center communications analyst manager for Delta Dental. Susan was later diagnosed with Myositis in 1998, she was eventually placed on disability in 2002, ending her working career.

Susan loved getting her family and friends together for Sunday dinners, holidays, and sporting events. She enjoyed camping with friends and family, traveling abroad, and family road trips. Her hobbies included going to her son's and grandchildren's sporting events, producing yarn from wool, crocheting, tapestry, crafting, painting, drawing, coloring, board games, solitaire cards, photography, and nature watching especially hummingbirds and butterflies. She had a keen eye for interior decorating and home design as well as exterior landscaping layouts. She was a movie buff and especially enjoyed the horror/ drama/ thriller, and comedy genres. Susan competed on Women's Team Excellence Whale Boat Race Regatta in the Mare Island Straits.

Susan's strength and perseverance, loving smile, caring heart and legacy will always be remembered.
