

Vicky J. Scopesi

May 14, 1953 - May 18, 2024

Vicky Scopesi of Vallejo, Calif., passed away in May following a brief illness. Vicky was retired and enjoying travel, golf, cooking, her magnificent garden, her enthusiastic fan worship of the Golden State Warriors and the 49ers, fishing and participating at Soroptimist and local political events. Her Goldendoodle, Tella, was a highlight of her life.

She is remembered for her overwhelming generosity in all that she did, sharing of her culinary accomplishments, her deep love of the City of Vallejo, her loyalty to those she loved, her personal resilience in the face of medical trials and tribulations, and her sense of humor through it all.

Throughout her career, Vicky worked in personnel at Kaiser Permanente and the City of Vallejo in risk management.

She is survived by her sister, Jean (DeWayne) Miller of St. Petersburg, Fla., and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Vicky is preceded in death by her mother, father, brother, stepmother and two stepsisters. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Soroptimist International of Vallejo, P.O. Box 4262, Vallejo CA94590 with Vicky Scopesi in the memo. A celebration of life will be held Saturday, June 22, at 1:30 PM at First Christian Church, 1035

Indiana St., Vallejo, Calif.
